We're working towards a better industry, together.

AHLA invites you to attend our 11th Annual Hospitality and Eco Expo. We've created the right environment to highlight vendors like you – committed to green initiatives, efficient ways of working, economical solutions, and providing hoteliers with the most quality products and services.

Bring your best and we will show you the same, placing you in front of the most important decision makers in Austin's ever growing hotel industry. We look forward to having you benefit from this unique forum where you can stay current on who's who in this everchanging hospitality community, continued with CBRE.

– Denise Eisman, President

WHY EXPO WITH US

TESTIMONIALS

This is such a great organization and my 3rd year as a vendor. In order to get the most out of it, I would recommend going all in, not just a toe in, we were able to establish 3 contracts from the first year of participation.

– Karla Urbina, Regional Sales, Exterior Furniture

The very first Green Trade Show that I attended, our hotel engaged with a vendor and within seven days a $20,000 order for their products was placed. Introductions lead to relationships, relationships lead to trust, and trust leads to more business.

–Rob Gillette, GM -Renaissance Hotel
